
NATIONAL COMMODITY CLEARING LIMITED

Circular to all Trading and Clearing Members of the Exchange

Circular No. : NCCL/LOGISTICS-003/2024

Date : October 07, 2024

Subject : Verification of the designated weighbridge

Reference is invited to the NCCL Master Circular on Warehousing Operations issued vide NCCL Circular no. NCCL/LOGISTICS-001/2024 dated April 08, 2024 and more particularly to the para 11 (g) on Withdrawal of commodities from Warehouse. The relevant para 11 (g) is reproduced below:

'...Weighment is done at the designated weighbridge and a weighbridge slip is issued. The designated weighbridge of warehouses is verified and stamped by the Legal Metrology Officer/Inspector of the Department/Division of Legal Metrology of the State Government and a copy of the certificate for verification is available at the warehouse.'

In this context, it is reiterated that the copy of the certificate which is issued by the Legal Metrology Officer/Inspector of the Department or the Division of Legal Metrology of the State Government and is made available for verification is the conclusive proof with respect to the weights and weighment.

Members and participants having any grievances with respect to the accuracy of the designated weighbridge are advised to approach the relevant competent authority issuing the certificate for redressal of their grievances.

Members and participants are also advised to exercise restraint and caution while raising such grievances against any such designated weighbridge which is verified by the Legal Metrology Officer/Inspector of the Department or the Division of Legal Metrology of the State Government and any frivolous complaints shall be viewed very seriously which please note.

Members and participants are requested to take note of the same.
